

More Cities, More Projects, More Savings with CIPLIST.com

May 9, 2012

Cities are posting more and more projects on CIPLIST.com, the free and easy-to-use system for cities to manage the project bidding process, and it's easy to see why.

Oakland, for one, is currently bidding 10 projects totaling more than an estimate $20 million, along with two RFPs. By using CIPLIST.com to facilitate the bidding process and plan distribution for these projects Oakland is saving thousands of dollars in time as well as printing and paper expenses.

CIPLIST.com is FREE for EVERYONE!

Our philosophy at CIPLIST.com is simple. We provide a system that is free for everyone in involved, and at the same time makes everyone's lives easier. It's paperless, which saves cities time and money in printing and materials and also saves contractors from fees and deposits. It's easy to use and provides total organization and access. Cities can upload projects in less than 5 minutes, then watch as contractors download plans and bid. Better communication, better organization, and easier for everyone involved – at no cost to anybody.

What is CIPLIST.com?

- Paperless bidding saves taxpayer money each month.
- Organizes plan holders into lists of prime contractors, sub contractors, and vendors.
- Automatic notification to contractors of new project postings.
- Reduced personnel, administrative and IT department costs.
- Total control of YOUR projects from beginning to end.
- California AB-2036 compliant

CAN YOUR CITY AFFORD THIS?

California municipalities are now forced to either release electronic copies and lose control of their projects, or print and "check out" thousands of dollars worth of paper plans, bid in the new regulations to distribute these plans to trade publications and plan rooms, and you've created a virtual nightmare of increased expenses, overworked employees and total loss of control of the bidding process.

"We were frustrated when we couldn't find a paperless bid solution that met all the new legal requirements, but still allowed us full control and visibility of the bid process. So, we teamed up with Virtual Project Manager (VPM) and CIPLIST.com to create one."

— Nima Abadi,
Associate Engineer, City of San Marcos, California

Thanks to the City of San Marcos and VPM, there is now a FREE online solution that is now available to all municipalities through CIPLIST.com.
